Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! Insurance cover is defined by the type and extent of cover described in the General Terms and Conditions of Insurance and in the tariff conditions of the corresponding tariff.
- ! No reimbursement of expenses for claims occurring during the waiting period
- ! The amount of reimbursement is limited on expenses incurred.
- ! Other limitations such as:
 - Breach of obligations
 - If the policyholder does not arrange for payment of instalments due in due time
 - During sojourn in a non-European country

Where am I covered ?

- ✓ Insurance cover applies to Europe
- ✓ Insurance cover is provided during the first month of a temporary sojourn in a non-European country

What are my obligations ?

- The policyholder and the person insured are obliged to furnish on demand any information and documentation necessary in order to determine an insurance claim
- Persons insured are obliged to undergo a medical examination performed by a medical consultant on behalf of the company if requested to do so by the insurance company
- The policyholder is obliged to pay the agreed premium plus taxes on time

When and how do I pay ?

- The first instalment/premium payment must be paid at the latest immediately after the insurance policy has been given to the policy holder, however, not before the inception date of insurance cover indicated on the insurance policy
- All other premiums are due, depending on the agreed method of payment, at the beginning of the agreed contribution period
- Premium payment can be effected via bank transfer or via direct debit mandate in favor of the insurer. Should you opt for monthly instalments, it is indispensable to arrange for a direct debit mandate in favor of the insurer

When does the cover start and end ?

- Insurance cover commences in accordance with the time period stated in the policy document (commencement of insurance); however, not before the insurance contract has been concluded, i.e. not before the insurance policy has been signed by both contractual partners and not before the termination of waiting periods
- Insurance cover ends – including any insurance claims which may be still pending – when the insurance contract is terminated
- Insurance cover is terminated, for example; in case of:
 - Cancellation of the insurance contract
 - Death of the insured person
 - Non-compliance with the requirements of a risk/person to be insured stipulated in the tariff conditions

How do I cancel the contract ?

- The policyholder can contest the automatic renewal of the insurance contract by notifying the insurance company with effect at the end of the insurance year, however, not before termination of the second insurance year at the earliest
- Cancellation must be effected in writing
- Period of notice to cancel the insurance contract is 30 days
- As a policyholder, you may limit the cancellation of the insurance to a single insured person in your insurance contract
- The cancellation is only valid provided that the policyholder can prove that the insured persons affected by this were informed of notification to cancel
- In some situations, you might have an extraordinary cancellation right, e.g. if premium contributions are subject to an increase
